

As a business owner you are entitled to privacy and hassle free operation. Post these 2 signs in common law on your front door. It states that a trespasser will be subpoenaed to a common law court for his or her trespass and fined $35,000.00 for that harm against you and your business and any customers.

Your responses in common law are: 1) why are you in trespass after reading my notice.

2) You need to leave

3) I need your ID if you do not leave immediately

Important points off common law.

Within common law you are a man or woman, not a fiction.

No corporation is above a man or woman.

No man or woman can harm another.

No man or woman can tell another what to do.

No corporation or fiction can give a man or woman an order.

Only a man or woman can imagine, wish, order or create.

A man or woman has the right to freely conduct commerce unencumbered.

All government, federal, provincial or municipal are service corporations

No corporation can order a man or woman to do anything without their consent.

By consenting you are taking yourself out of common law protection and your safety zone.
